Game 0: Ant Picnic - Default Design By: Camille Ramseur
Ant Picnic is a solo game and has a similar adaption of space invaders and other arcade games.

“Ant’s Picnic” is played on a single screen. There the player is the ant and using their right and left arrow keys they can go back and forth to get the different kinds of fruit that falls out of the picnic basket. But try to avoid bigger fruit such as watermelon that could crush you.

Gameplay

Player will always start in the middle of the screen. The only time that you will see the food is when it is coming down.

Player and Fruit Movement:
Points:

Player will gain points by collecting different kinds of fruit.

Player can only move left and right while food can only move down from the picnic basket.

Losing Phase:

If player gets squashed by watermelon.
